ABOUT HELISPIRIT

HeliSpirit are renowned for a commitment to providing reliable, highly professional helicopter services to a diverse range of industries. HeliSpirit specialise in tourism, with a rich history dating back to 1984 where the company became the pioneers of scenic helicopter flights over the Bungle Bungle Range.

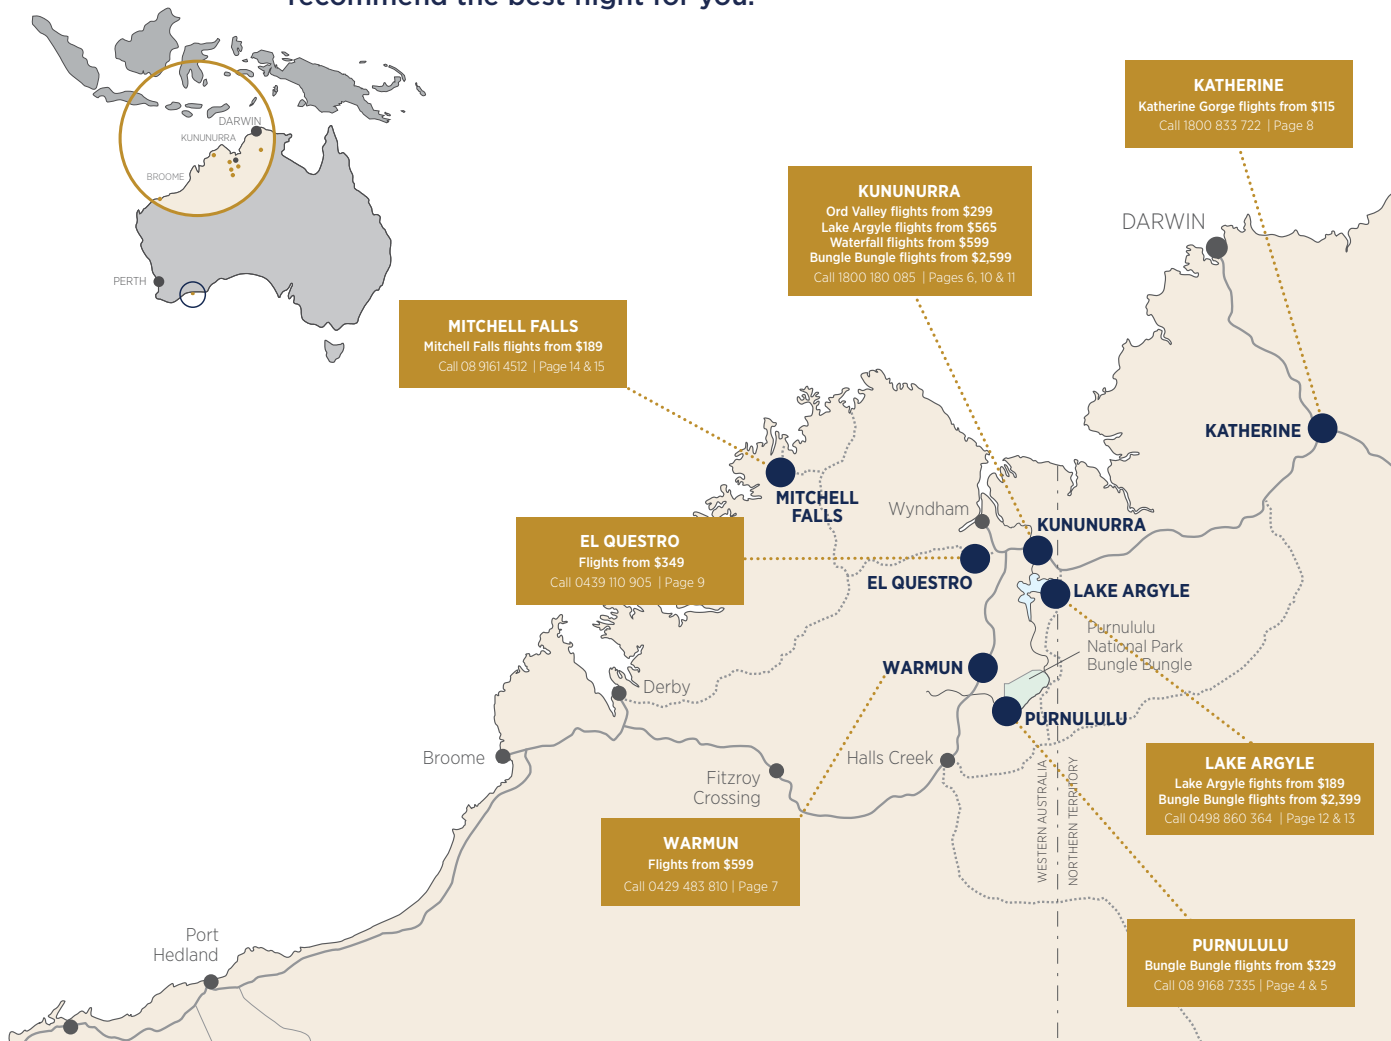

The head office is in Kununurra, a diverse town with approximately 8,000 residents situated 42km from the Northern Territory border. HeliSpirit have the privilege of flying tens of thousands of tourists around the region each year, with the peak period occurring from April to October.

HeliSpirit have developed a range of tourism products to showcase Australia's spectacular north-west. You can experience breathtaking flights over this amazing country from our bases across the Kimberley and Northern Territory.

HeliSpirit operates a fleet of twenty-five helicopters which are based at Purnululu National Park (Bungle Bungle), Warmun, Bullo River Station, El Questro, Katherine, Kununurra, Lake Argyle and Mitchell Plateau.

Locally owned, multi-award winning HeliSpirit is the specialist when it comes to discovering Australia's north by helicopter. The company hold National Tourism Quality Accreditation and in 2022 were inducted into the Eco Tourism Hall of Fame for being eco-accredited for over 20 years.

Call our friendly staff to chat about the region and help recommend the best flight for you.

ABOUT PURNULULU NATIONAL PARK THE BUNGLE BUNGLE

The World Heritage listed Purnululu National Park is the first national park in the Kimberley to be jointly managed by the Gija & Jaru and the Parks and Wildlife Service. The system of joint management acknowledges the Traditional Owners responsibility for care of the country and the well-being of visitors. HeliSpirit, as a licensed tour operator within Purnululu, adheres to and continually improves upon sustainability principles within the park. This ensures that future generations will enjoy the beauty of this unique landscape.

Our operations are conducted in a manner which enhances visitor experiences and preserves park values. Our achievement in being recognised as a Green Travel leader, having held Eco Certification since 2002, shows our commitment to sustainable tourism. HeliSpirit together with each of our passengers, is further contributing to the management of Purnululu in a financial capacity; a percentage of the tour price is paid to the Parks and Wildlife Service to preserve this natural area and provide visitor amenities.
