ABOUT PURNULULU NATIONAL PARK — THE BUNGLE BUNGLE

The World Heritage listed Purnululu National Park is the first national park in the Kimberley to be jointly managed by the Aboriginal Traditional Owners and the Parks and Wildlife Service. The system of joint management acknowledges the Traditional Owners responsibility for care of the country and the well-being of visitors. HeliSpirit, as a licensed tour operator within Purnululu, adheres to and continually improves upon sustainability principles within the park. This ensures that future generations will enjoy the beauty of this unique landscape. Our operations are conducted in a manner which enhances visitor experiences and preserves park values. Our achievement in being recognised as a Green Travel leader, having held Eco Certification since 2002, shows our commitment to sustainable tourism. HeliSpirit together with each of our passengers, is further contributing to the management of Purnululu in a financial capacity; a percentage of the tour price is paid to the Parks and Wildlife Service to preserve this natural area and provide visitor amenities.
